Rest and Renewal

E-News July 2026

(1 Thessalonians 5:16-18, Psalm 100, Psalm 107:1)

Shalom,
All is well.

Praise the Lord—we are joyfully beginning a new academic year. I would especially like to extend a warm welcome to all new students. We believe it is no coincidence that you are here. God has brought us all together for a noble purpose.

Proverbs 16:4 says: "The Lord has made everything for its purpose." Every child, teacher, staff member, parent, and donor—each has a role in God's great plan.

This year, we are taking a new step forward, integrating education, skills, and faith toward a single goal: shaping the students of School of Eagles into educated, skilled, and resilient individuals for the glory of God and the good of Indonesia.

This is a bold step that requires synergy from all of us—teachers, staff, and donors alike. We are stepping out of our comfort zones to move forward in faith, crafting a new framework in accordance with the Father's will, so that His plans for School of Eagles may be fulfilled, as ordained from on high.

I pray that in this academic year, every student will grow in wisdom (Luke 2:52), every teacher will be strengthened, and this school will be a blessing to many.

Let us welcome the new academic year with hope. He who began a good work among us will surely bring it to completion (Philippians 1:6).

May the Lord Jesus bless us all.

Align with God's Grand Narrative about Education

MISSION SMPTK School of Eagles :

previously

1. To prepare Bible-based educators who possess resilience that refuse to give up in the face of challenging circumstances, able to maintain a simple lifestyle, and teach using a model that is easily transferable to others.
2. Shaping students with character, intelligent, skilled, independent, and inspiring.
3. Maintain and preserve the environment of SMPTK School of Eagles
4. Establish partnerships with educational institutions outside of SMPTK School of Eagles, whether with government bodies, churches, foundations, non-governmental organizations, or private individuals.
5. Undertake initiatives that benefit SMPTK School of Eagles and the community.

1. Develop and empower educators and staff with Christ-like character, competent, innovative, with servant-heartedness, that are capable of instilling the vision values in every learning and development process.
2. Provide a holistic learning and development process, integrated with Christian values, to shape a reliable generation, that fears and trembles before God, has Christ-like character, is militant in faith and possesses the spirit of servant leadership, that is ready to act in ministry and professions.
3. Seek, foster and educate students who are outcasted, neglected, and damaged to become individuals who are educated, skilled and resilient.
4. Develop an accountable, transparent, and Christ-centered prime institutional governance, and create a safe, comfortable school environment that supports the formation of future generations that are aligned with the vision.
5. Build synergistic partnerships with parents, churches, communities, the business/industry world, other institutions and the government to support the formation of a superior generation that brings glory to God and the goodness of Indonesia.

“Because of you, a child isn't just learning to read—they're discovering a world of possibility. Your donation is more than a transaction; it's a message to a student that says, 'I believe in you.' It transforms into the textbook for a future scientist, the safe after-school space for an aspiring artist, and the confidence for a shy student to raise their hand. This is the lasting impact you create: not just funding programs, but fueling potential and changing life trajectories.”
